Part IV

Supplemental Information

Part and Line Number: Part II-B Line 1g

The Organization provides services to many city departments including elected officials. Elected officials often organize community cleanups and other events that benefit the community. The Organization meets with elected officials to educate them on the Organization's mission to equip volunteers and to make the officials aware of the services the elected officials can utilize and share with their constituents. In 2023 the Organization paid two firms $22,500 to assist with these efforts.
